

degol intends to become a seeking company in the field of environmental feasibility studies, water and air quality measurements, noise measurements, acoustic report preparation, geographic information system applications (GIS) and environmental modeling studies.

The academic and research based connections of degol is also very strong. In addition to the Middle East Technical University, where the founding partners are graduated from, the relationships of degol with other universities such as Gazi University, Ankara University and Hacettepe University are very strong to have adequate support for satisfying various professional requirements.

The founding partners of degol who intends to conduct all the services in compliance with the adequate quality standards have numerous expertise in various projects supported by various international finance organizations such as World Bank, Deutsche Bank, etc.